

On the Deliveries tab, scroll to see all new and past deliveries, orders that was assigned, accepted, completed, rejected or canceled, click on assigned. Scroll to see customer details, order summary, you can reject or accept the order, to accept and order, click on accept order. Scroll to see time and date the order was assigned and accepted. Click on deliver order and make sure you are within the location of the customer's outlet. Click on yes if you are outside the delivery radius. Click on deliver order. Input the verification code sent to the customer and click on verify, click on resend if they did not get the code. The driver can skip the OTP if necessary, but he is expected to deliver the order to the right customer. Click on yes, skip. Click on deliver order. Click on proceed. Input the number of empties the customer is returning and click on proceed. Click on deliver order and input the amount the customer is paying. Click on proceed. Click on deliver order and yes, confirm. Click, okay. Click on generate receipt. Finally download and share to your customer.