

On the Drivers Products tab, scroll to view all the products in the Drivers van. You can click to search. Click on empties to see all the empties you have in your van. Click on replenishment to see all the products the distributor loaded in your van. You will use these products to capture one-off sales to register and non-registered customers. Click on return products to return items to the warehouse at the end of your sale or close of work.