

On the Drivers tab, the stock is can view all the drivers he or she has. Click on the filter button to view the driver's status. Select the option you want to view and click show result. To view driver's details, select the driver. The order history shows all the orders that was assigned to the driver. Click on the drop down to see the driver's stock level. The stock level shows all the stocks the driver have in their van. Click on replenish. Select or search for the driver. Select or search for the product you want to load in the driver's van. Input the quantity. You can see how many cases the driver has in his or her van. Scroll to add more products. Click replenish van. Click. Yes. Replenish. Van replenishment is successful.