

On the My Store tab, the stock is Can View All Products, Empties and Restock History. Click on All Products to view all your products. Scroll to view your BI products and Marketplace products. You can view your total value, total product, product in stock and product up out of stock. Click on the Filter icon. Select the option you want to view and click Show Result. Click on the Sort icon and select the option you want to view. To add new stock, click on Add. Select the product. Select the product you want to add in your store. Enter the quantity, input the price and don't go below the suggested price range and click on Done. The stock is Can Edit Products or Click on Done to Confirm. Click Yes Add. Click to Continue Adding Products. Click on a BI products. Scroll to view all products in your store, product in stock, low stock and products out of stock. To view empties, click Empties. They can view all the total empties in their store. Empties in stock and empties out of stock. Click on Restock History. To view the Order History, click on the Order. You can view the Order Summary. Empties return summary and total amount. To adjust your inventory after each sale, select the product. Update the quantity then click Changes. Your inventory will be updated successfully.