

A bulk breaker can receive and place orders. Click on Received Orders to see list of orders received on your store. On the Received Orders tab, you can see all your open orders and completed orders. Scroll to see your received, confirmed, dispatched and delivered orders. Click on Received. Click on Reject Order or Accept Order. Scroll to see your order status. Click on Accept. Once you accept the order, it moves to confirm. Click on Marked as Dispatched when you send the order out. Click on Marked as delivered once the customer has gotten the order. Click on Marked as completed to close the order. Scroll to see the exact time and date the order was received, confirmed, dispatched and delivered. Click on Marked as completed. Click on the order that is still in dispatch to deliver the order. Click on Marked as delivered. Click on Marked as completed. While you're in Received Orders, click the back arrow, then click on Place Orders. Place orders are orders you place to distributors. You can see when your order has been received, confirmed, dispatched and delivered. On the Completed Orders tab, scroll to see orders that have been completed, rejected or canceled. Click on Confirmed. Click to Reorder. Scroll to see your order summary, buy your details, order status and sellers information.