

On the bulk breakers product tab, scroll to see all the products you have in your store. Click to see products in stock. Click to see the products out of stock. You can search for products on the search bar. Click to add more product. Select the products you want to add. Click on the product. Input your price and don't go below the recommended price range. And click on done.